

STATE OF WISCONSIN
DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Request Date: 2/12/2021

Report Date: 2/12/2021

This criminal background check was performed by searching the following data submitted to the Crime Information Bureau

Name: HUBER, ANTHONY ■

Date of Birth: 8/21/1994

Alias Names:

IMPORTANT EXPLANATION ABOUT HOW TO UNDERSTAND THIS RESPONSE

This response reports the results of a criminal history search conducted with the name, date of birth, and any other identifying data you provided. The identifying data you provided is printed above. If you submitted fingerprints with your search request see the statement below.

Read this entire explanation, the How to Read the Following Criminal History Report section and the Notice to Employers section. Read these sections carefully to understand how this response relates to the identifying data you provided.

Printed below these explanations is a Wisconsin criminal history record that has been identified as a possible match to the identifying data you provided.

A criminal history search based only on a name, date of birth, and other identifying data that is not unique to a particular person (like sex or race) may result in:

1. Identification of criminal history records for multiple persons as potential matches for the identifying data submitted, or
2. Identification of a criminal history record belonging to a person whose identifying information is similar in some way to the identifying data that was submitted to be searched, but is not the same person whose identifying data was submitted for searching.

The Crime Information Bureau (CIB) therefore cannot guarantee that the criminal history record below pertains to the person in whom you are interested.

You must carefully read the entire Wisconsin criminal history record below in order to determine whether the record pertains to the person in whom you are interested.

Do not just assume that the criminal history record below pertains to the person in whom you are interested.

Additional information about finger-based search submissions: Fingerprint-based background checks generally provide a more reliable result and are prone to fewer false matches due to the specific identifying features of fingerprints.

HOW TO READ THE FOLLOWING CRIMINAL HISTORY REPORT

The criminal history reported below is linked by fingerprints to the name appearing directly after these explanatory sections, following the label IDENTIFICATION. That name is the name that was provided by the fingerprinted person the first time his or her fingerprints were submitted to CIB; it may or may not be the real name of the fingerprinted person. That name is called the Master Name in these explanatory sections.

It is not uncommon for criminal offenders to use alias or fraudulent names and false dates of birth, sometimes known as identity theft. Other names used by the person identified who is the Master Name are listed in the Alias Names/Fraudulent Data section of the criminal history report below.

If the name you submitted to be searched is DIFFERENT from the Master Name below, the Wisconsin criminal history record below may belong to someone other than the person whose name and other identifying data you submitted for searching. If an alias or fraudulent name used by the person who is the Master Name is similar to the name you submitted for searching, that does not mean that the person whose name you submitted for searching has a criminal history. It means that the person associated by fingerprints with the Wisconsin criminal history below has used a name similar to the name you submitted for searching.

If the name you submitted to be searched is THE SAME as the Master Name below, the Wisconsin criminal history record below may belong to someone other than the person whose name and other identifying data you submitted for searching. That is because the Master Name is the name attached to the initial fingerprint submission to CIB that is associated with the reported criminal history, may have been an alias name or a name similar to the name you submitted for searching.

To determine whether the Wisconsin criminal history below actually belongs to the person whose name and other identifying information you submitted for searching, compare the information reported below to the other information you have obtained about that person. Inconsistencies may indicate that the criminal history reported below does not belong to the person whose name and other identifying information you submitted for searching. You may need to ask for clarification from the person whose name and other identifying information you submitted for searching.

Before you make a final decision adverse to a person based on the following criminal history record, in addition to any other opportunity you offer the applicant to explain the following criminal history record, please notify the applicant of:

1. His or her right to challenge the accuracy and completeness of any information contained in a criminal history record, and
2. The process for submitting a challenge.

The person should submit his or her challenge to CIB on Form DJ-LE-247. Form DJ-LE-247 is available free of charge on the Department of Justice website at <http://www.doj.state.wi.us/dles/cib/background-check-criminal-history-information> or by calling (608) 266-7314. A challenge may include a request for comparison of the fingerprints of the person submitting the challenge to the fingerprints on file that are associated with the Wisconsin criminal history record below.

The Wisconsin criminal history report below may not show all arrests for the person whose fingerprints are associated with the reported criminal history. However, the criminal history report contains all information that has been provided to the state criminal history database that may be released in response to your request.

The results of this search are effective and current for the date of this search only. A new search request should be submitted at a later time if an updated response is needed.

NOTICE TO EMPLOYERS

It may be a violation of state law to discriminate against a job applicant because of an arrest or conviction record. Generally speaking, an employer may refuse to hire an applicant on the basis of a conviction record only if the circumstances of the offense for which the applicant was convicted substantially relate to the circumstances of the particular job. For more information, see Wisconsin Statute 111.335 and the Department of Workforce Development's publication, Arrest and Conviction Records Under the Law.

Before you make a final decision adverse to an applicant based on the following criminal history record, in addition to any other opportunity you offer the applicant to explain the following criminal history record, please notify the applicant of:

1. His or her right to challenge the accuracy and completeness of any information contained in a criminal history record, and
2. The process for submitting a challenge.

The applicant should submit his or her challenge to CIB on Form DJ-LE-247. Form DJ-LE-247 is available free of charge on the Department of Justice website at <http://www.doj.state.wi.us/dles/cib/background-check-criminal-history-information> or by calling (608) 266-7314. A challenge may include a request for comparison of the fingerprints of the person submitting the challenge to the fingerprints on file that are associated with the Wisconsin criminal history record below.

PROBABLE CAUSE:

On March 23, 2018 at approximately 10:01 a.m., Officer Donald Rowley of the Kenosha Police Department was dispatched to [REDACTED] Street in the City and County of Kenosha, State of Wisconsin, after Karen Bloom called the police to check the welfare of her daughter, Caitlyn Hughes. Ms. Bloom reported that she was on the phone with Caitlyn and could hear her adult son, the defendant Anthony Huber, yelling at her, and the call then disconnected. Ms. Bloom was concerned as the defendant has a history of abusive behavior.

Upon arrival at the residence, Officer Rowley met with Caitlyn Hughes, who was very upset and crying. Caitlyn stated that she lives at this residence with her brother, the defendant Anthony Hughes. She stated that on this date, she was in her bedroom when the defendant entered the room and yelled at her about needing an insurance card. Caitlyn told the defendant she would look for it in a little while. She went into the living room to work on a craft project involving wine glasses. The defendant began to yell at Caitlyn loudly about finding the card. Caitlyn began to look through her purse for the card. As she was doing so, the defendant continued to yell and scream about the card and how no one does anything around the house to keep the house clean. Caitlyn threw her purse at the defendant, which caused a wine glass to break on the floor. The defendant stepped on a piece of the broken glass and cut his foot. The defendant then stated, "see what you did" as he went into his bedroom. As Caitlyn began to pick up the broken glass, the defendant came out of the bedroom and kicked her in the right hip, causing her pain without her consent, and she fell into a nearby dog crate. Caitlyn then called her mother. The defendant left the residence prior to police arrival.

Officer Steven Winter of the Kenosha Police Department attempted to locate the defendant. Officer Winter contacted the defendant by telephone. The defendant sounded upset and crying and stated that he was angry at his sister for calling the police on him. The defendant stated that he didn't do anything wrong. Officer Winter encouraged the defendant to turn himself in, but he stated "I ain't going back to jail, I am just going to kill myself." The defendant also told Officer Winter that he cut his foot on some glass at home and that he would need medical attention. Officer Winter obtained a "ping" on the defendant's cell phone, but he was not located in that area.

Your complainant is an attorney with the Kenosha County District Attorney's Office, who bases his/her knowledge of this complaint on:

- The official law enforcement agency reports of the Kenosha Police Department prepared by Officers Donald Rowley and Steven Winter, which reports were prepared in the normal course of law enforcement duties;

PROBABLE CAUSE:

On December 6, 2012 at approximately 7:31 p.m., Officer Sarah Nord of the Kenosha Police Department responded to [REDACTED] Street, City and County of Kenosha, State of Wisconsin for the report of family trouble.

Upon arrival, Officer Nord spoke to Richard Hughes (R.J.), who provided a signed, written statement. R.J. stated that at approximately 2:00 p.m., he was at home (912 75th Street) with his brother Anthony [Huber] (the defendant) and his grandmother (Patricia Hughes). R.J. stated that he lives at that residence with his mother, grandmother, sister, and the defendant.

R.J. stated that he was playing Xbox in his sister's room when the defendant came into the room, started yelling at him, and calling him a "fat fuck." The defendant told R.J. to start cleaning or he would gut R.J. like a pig. R.J. noticed a knife in the defendant's right hand that looked like a butcher knife, was approximately 6 inches long, and had a green handle. The defendant held the knife up and then down by his side. The defendant came toward R.J. and told him to start cleaning. R.J. stated that he was afraid the defendant was going to stab him.

R.J. walked out of the room, and the defendant followed him. The defendant threw a chair and some clothes across the room. The defendant yelled again that he was going to kill R.J. if he didn't clean. R.J. stated that he was afraid, so he started picking up stuff. R.J. stated that his grandma was in the living room and looked scared, so she began picking up stuff, too.

The defendant sat down with the knife in his hand and watched them while they were picking up. The defendant told R.J. if he stopped, he would kill R.J. R.J. stated that this went on for about a half hour. R.J. grabbed his keys and laptop and made his way to the front door. The defendant yelled at him and told him that he was not allowed out of the house. R.J. turned around, and the defendant put a knife to R.J.'s stomach, saying that he was going to gut R.J. like a pig. R.J. bent down to try to protect himself. The defendant grabbed R.J. by the neck and dug his nails in. R.J. stated that he hurt and he thought the defendant was going to choke him. The defendant held his hand to R.J.'s throat for about 10 seconds, and R.J. could not breathe. The defendant finally let go, and R.J. bent down again to protect himself.

The defendant put the knife to R.J.'s left ear. R.J. felt the blade and believed his ear was cut. The defendant backed up for a second, and R.J. noticed that his ear was bleeding. R.J. put the keys and computer down and continued cleaning. R.J. went to use the bathroom and saw the defendant looking for the house phone. R.J. stated that he didn't feel that he could leave the house, or the defendant would cut or stab him. R.J. hit the "record" button on his cell phone and put it in his pocket.

R.J. came out of the bathroom, and the defendant started yelling at him, wanting to use R.J.'s cell phone. The defendant was screaming and swearing. After a few minutes, the defendant calmed down but still had the knife in his hand. R.J. stepped outside with the garbage and believed the situation had diffused.

The defendant demanded that his grandma take him to the skate park, and she did. R.J. waited for his mother to come home. They went to dinner to discuss what they should do. R.J. and his mother (Karen Bloom) decided to call crisis.

Upon arriving home, R.J. told the defendant that he had two options: involve the police or go to the hospital with R.J. to get help. The defendant refused to go with R.J., started yelling at him, and called him a "fat fuck." R.J. then called police. The defendant came outside and started chasing R.J. while he was on the phone with dispatch. The defendant then ran back inside and took off on a skateboard.

R.J. stated that he was afraid for himself and other family members. The last thing the defendant said before leaving was, "I'm gonna burn the house down with all you fuckers in it!" [COUNT 6]

R.J. did not give anyone consent to threaten him, choke him, or make him fear for his safety. R.J. indicated that he hoped the defendant would get help with his anger and depression issues.

Officer Nord observed a tiny cut on the top, back of R.J.'s ear and a small scratch on the right side of R.J.'s neck.

Patricia Hughes provided a signed, written statement, similar to that of R.J.'s. Patricia stated that the defendant went to the kitchen, came back with a large butcher knife and put the knife at R.J.'s neck and stomach. The defendant was slashing at R.J. The defendant also threatened to cut off R.J.'s fingers. Ms. Hughes stated that the defendant was preventing them from calling for help. Ms. Hughes was scared to go to her purse to get her cell phone out. Ms. Hughes was also scared that the defendant as going to stab or cut R.J.

Ms. Hughes stated that she told R.J. just to leave. When R.J. would try to leave, the defendant would say, "I dare you," and put the knife up to R.J.'s throat. The defendant also said, "I can slit your throat. I can gut you up and down." Ms. Hughes stated that she took the defendant to the skate park, and everything was fine.

R.J., Ms. Hughes, Karen Bloom and Caitlyn H. (DOB 4/30/1997) were also present for the evening incident where the defendant threatened to burn down the house.

The defendant arrived home while Officer Nord was still responding to the call. The defendant was very lethargic but cooperative. The defendant told officers where the knife was. Officer Martin Howard of the Kenosha Police Department located a silver knife in a kitchen drawer. R.J. indicated that he was 100% positive that this knife was the one the defendant had been using earlier.

The family indicated that the defendant had been making suicidal statements before leaving the house.

Your complainant is an attorney with the Kenosha County District Attorney's Office, who bases his/her knowledge of this complaint on:
